

GROUP STUDY AND ACTIVITY PROGRAMME

We recognise that a visit to England is much more than just an opportunity to learn English. It is a complete cultural and linguistic experience.

We have therefore designed our group study and activity programme to get the very best out of the group's time here, built on three main elements:

We welcome to LISC groups from schools and organisations from all around the world. The main components of our programme are set out below:

English at All Times (EAT©)
student age and mix
group sizes
flexible start dates
tuition time
activities programme

English language tuition combined with homestay and activities programmes boys and girls aged 9-19 8 – 15 per group
any Monday, any week of the year apart from Christmas/New Year 15 English lessons (x 45 mins) per week*
an extensive programme of activities, entertainment and cultural visits over 6 afternoons and 2 evenings*

guardianship accommodation

24 hour support from Sutherland Education (AEGIS accredited) carefully selected families offering practical and language support, and a wonderful opportunity to learn about the English way of life*

 We are able to accommodate special requests, depending on requirements and our capacity at the time. This will be reflected in our price.*

ACCOMMODATION AND GUARDIANSHIP

Integral to every LISC's EAT© programme is a stay with a caring family. In this way, students benefit from maximum English language support and become familiar with English culture, traditions and way of life. All families are properly checked, specially trained, and meet our strict suitability criteria. In summary, the service which Sutherland Education (accredited by AEGIS*) offers includes:

- a safe and happy home environment
- contact 24 hours a day and prompt action in emergencies
- ongoing communication with student, parent and school
- personal support, guidance and counselling
- assistance with practical arrangements: travel, pocket money, outings, airport collection, mobile phones, visas
- professional advice on current school matters or future school choices (also available to agents, if requested)

* AEGIS (Association for the Education and Guardianship of International Students) which was originated by Andrew Sutherland, Co-Principal of LISC and Sutherland Education.
